

LAGB Annual Meeting 2005: University of Cambridge

Second Circular and Programme

The 2005 Annual Meeting of the Linguistics Association of Great Britain will be held at the University of Cambridge, at Fitzwilliam College, from 31st August to 3rd September. The local organisers will be Theresa Biberauer and Raffaella Folli (and the meeting email address will be LAGB@hotmail.co.uk).

Please check the conference website for any updates and further details about the meeting:
<http://people.pwf.cam.ac.uk/mtb23/LAGB2005>

Special events

1. The Henry Sweet Lecture 2005 will be delivered by Gennaro Chierchia (Università degli Studi di Milano) on the evening of 31st August, with the title 'Recursive pragmatics'.
 2. There will also be a Workshop on 'Pragmatics, Multidimensional Semantics, and Grammar', related to the Henry Sweet lecture, featuring invited speakers, and organised by Gennaro Chierchia (Università degli Studi di Milano) and Katarzyna M. Jaszczolt (University of Cambridge) on the afternoon of 31st August.
 3. The Linguistics Association Lecture 2005 will be delivered by David Pesetsky (MIT) on 3rd September, with the title 'Subcategorization phenomena and Case-theory effects: some possible explanations.'
 4. There will also be a special, themed session, related to David Pesetsky's Linguistics Association Lecture with the title 'Complementation and Selection for Syntactic Categories'.
 5. There will be a Language Tutorial on Pirahã, given by Daniel L. Everett (University of Manchester). This tutorial provides an overview of the major structures of Pirahã morphology, syntax, and phonology. The tutorial further considers the arguments in Everett's forthcoming article in Current Anthropology for the conclusion that Pirahã provides evidence that languages may follow different evolutionary paths, contra the predictions of Universal Grammar. Sound files, pictures, video, and data handouts will be available at the presentation, and a preliminary version of the Current Anthropology article and appendices can be found at: <http://lings.ln.man.ac.uk/Info/staff/DE/culturalgrammar.pdf>.
 6. There will be a session with the theme 'An A-level in Linguistics?', organised by the LAGB's Education Committee, featuring Billy Clark, Judith Broadbent, Graeme Trousdale and Dick Hudson; for further details: www.phon.ucl.ac.uk/home/dick/ec/ecsessions.htm.
 7. The chair of the Linguistics RAE subpanel, John Local, will give a short presentation and will answer questions as part of the AGM on the afternoon of 1st September.
 8. Wine parties will be held on the evening of 31st August and 2nd September.

Venue

Fitzwilliam College is one of the more modern colleges within the University of Cambridge, situated away from the busy town centre at the top of the only hill in Cambridge, Castle Hill. The College enjoys a large and peaceful site, off the main tourist route, but within 10 minutes' walking distance from the city centre. It was built in the 1960s in the grounds of The Grove, a splendid Regency house which is now part of the college. Last year saw the completion of a new entrance on Storey's Way, providing the College with a new face which opens onto one of Cambridge's best-kept secrets: Fitzwilliam's beautiful gardens. The College is situated right next door to two other Cambridge colleges: New Hall, and Churchill College, which houses some of the most interesting collections in the city, including the papers of Winston Churchill. More information about Fitzwilliam can be found at <http://www.fitz.cam.ac.uk>.

Accommodation: will be provided on site at Fitzwilliam, and a selection of different types of single rooms (with either (i) en suite bathroom, (ii) en suite shower and wash basin or (iii) wash basin only) will be available; only certain number of these rooms are available, and these will be allocated on a first come, first served basis. Please BOOK EARLY if you would like to be sure to get a room.

Travel: Cambridge is located just 60 miles (approximately 100km) north of London. The nearest airport is London Stansted, which is 50 minutes away by bus and roughly 45 minutes by train, with hourly connections available from the airport terminal. The city is also well connected to Heathrow airport: information on bus schedules can be found on the National Express website (<http://www.nationalexpress.com>) and there is also a convenient rail-link via London King's Cross station. Heathrow is connected to King's Cross via the Piccadilly Underground Line and 'Cambridge Cruiser' trains run between King's Cross and Cambridge at half-hourly intervals (journey time approximately 45 minutes). More information on transport and directions to Cambridge can be found on the University website at <http://www.cam.ac.uk/cambarea> (consult the Travel Information section). Fitzwilliam College itself is on the Huntingdon Road (A1307) and is approximately 1 mile north-west of Cambridge city centre. For details on transport and directions to the College, see <http://www.fitz.cam.ac.uk/about/directions>.

Registration: will take place from 11.00 to 1.00 on Wednesday 31st August at Fitzwilliam College. Report to the Porters' Lodge on Storey's Way and follow the signs.

Bar: A bar will be available on campus during the conference.

Food: Please indicate if you are vegetarian or have other dietary requirements on the booking form.

Bookings: Bookings should be sent to Theresa Biberauer and Raffaella Folli at the address given on the booking form.

Early booking discount: There is a discount on bookings received by 8th August 2004.

Guests and non-members: Members may invite any number of guests to meetings of the Association, and non-members may attend without invitation; an additional guest fee of £5.00 is payable on booking for non-members, in addition to the standard fees. This can be avoided by joining the Association before booking.

Abstracts: are available to members who are unable to attend the meeting. Please order using the booking form below.

Annual General Meeting: This is to be held on the afternoon of Thursday 1st September. Items for the agenda should be sent to the Honorary Secretary (address below).

Communications with the membership

Website: the LAGB website can be found at www.lagb.org.

Mailing list: Please ensure that you have joined the LAGB mailing list, which is used for disseminating LAGB information and for consulting members quickly. You can subscribe by sending a message to majordomo@essex.ac.uk, with the following as the body (not subject line) of the message: "subscribe lagb" (without the quotes and with nothing else in the message).

Changes of address: members are reminded to notify the Membership Secretary of changes of address. An institutional address is preferred as bulk mailing saves postage.

Future Meetings

All Meetings are held in late August / early September:

2006 University of Newcastle upon Tyne (30 August – 2 September)

2007 [Kings College London – provisional]

The Meetings Secretary would very much like to receive offers of future venues, particularly from institutions which the LAGB has not previously visited.

Nominations for speakers, workshops and language tutorials (language and/or speaker) at future meetings are also requested – all suggestions should be sent to the Honorary Secretary. The nominations collected will be voted on by the membership at the Annual General Meeting, which is held as part of the Annual meeting.

Election of a new President

The current president is to step down from this year, so nominations were requested in the last circular for a replacement. The committee proposed a nominee, and no other nominations were received by the 1st June 2005 deadline. Given that this deadline has now passed, the committee is very pleased to announce that the new President will be Kersti Börjars of the University of Manchester. She will be appointed President officially at the AGM.

Booking Form (please send any queries to LAGB@hotmail.co.uk)

FILL IN the section for general details and either 1, 2, or 3 and return, by post, to: LAGB organisers, c/o Department of Linguistics, University of Cambridge, Sidgwick Avenue, Cambridge, CB3 9DA, UK.

If you would like to pay by credit card, fill in your details in the section provided. If you would like to pay by cheque (only sterling cheques drawn from UK banks are acceptable), make it payable to 'University of Cambridge'. There is a discount on bookings received by 8th August 2005 (expressed as a late fee for those booking after this date). Receipts will be provided on arrival at Cambridge.
